Boss - I think you need to avail later today. Will upend schedule a bit this aft but between irrelevant and blockades I think you gotta talk to Canadians before weekend. Do you want to talk this through or is this your instinct already?

I'm not 100 sold on this by the way. You don't have the best answers to provide yet or much if any new news. And Friday afternoons we are all exhausted and I can imagine gallery is too and they won't be looking forward to weekend. But I lean toward it slightly given all the events at moment (domestic and international) I worry about Canadians not hearing from you.

I agree with Katie
